Hmmm. Seems our acting chief of staff should be helping to track these items.

Thank you to Mary, who gently pointed out that this was buried in my inbox on April 16. I will make a few more changes to it based on the emails I sent subsequently and get it over to Veronica tonight. Always nice when an emergency turns out to be taken care of!

I may need to come up with some improved tracking systems for flagging things that get very quickly overcome in my email box!

All, I was asked by Veronica tonight where is this document. I need asap. Knowing how good we are all on these deadlines, I'm sure it just is sitting in someone's outbox or on a desk. This is very urgent now.

From Veronica Darwin who is tasked with tracking PFAS actions and reporting to the Administrator on a TBD basis.

"Find attached a tracking tool that I will use to brief the Administrator. I filled in the lead program office column based on my read of the PFAS Action Plan but please correct any inaccuracies. I've included a few notes in the tracker. Can you please have staff update the status and due dates for OCSPP actions by Wednesday (4/17)?"
